TRADITION & PRESTIGE

Founded in 1830, BALP is a benchmark in the manufacture of edged weapons. Taken over in 1954, its know-how has been passed down through four generations, combining tradition and excellence.

Today, we perpetuate this *expertise while integrating international know-how to meet the needs of the major armed forces. Discover our range of sabers, swords, accessories and uniforms for military schools and republican guards around the world.
